COMPETITION RULES:

- The competition will be held on April 29th 2023 from 7.00 am to 7.00 pm.
- The goal of the competition is to finish climbing as many routes as possible within a predetermined time period.
- The competition will be divided into three categories (men's pairs, women's pairs, mixed pairs).
- The use of standard certified climbing gear, including a helmet, is mandatory.
- All participants must indicate the category they will be participating in before the start of the competition.
- All pairs (teams) must climb together (lead climber/belayer) from the start of the competition until the end.
- Participants will be provided with a scoring sheet upon their application.
- For every route they complete the climbers will enter the appropriate points into their scoring sheet according to the scoring chart.

- Only routes completed in the free climbing technique as lead climber are valid (top rope is not allowed).
- During long routes the climbers may reverse their roles as lead climber, in which case they will enter points into their scoring sheet for each length they have freeclimbed.
- Climbing will be allowed in all sectors.
- Each route may be climbed only once (with pairs, each team member can take the same route as his/her partner, but it must be free-climbed).
- The competition relies on the fair play of all participants, as there will be no referees.
- The organizer will gather the scoring sheets at the end of the competition process the data and declare the winners.

The organizer of the competition reserves the right to change these Rules, with timely notification of the participants by the publication of the revised Rules.
